

Technician for the installation of technical protection systems

Installation and maintenance of safety equipment

The technician's work includes field work, on-call duties, interventions with users as needed